

EXTRA / EXTRA / CIRCUS TODAY

This is a throwback from the freak exhibits which it has presented in former years. Under this one tent will also be Barbara's Bubble Bath, where scouts, AND OFFICERS, may give vent to that long suppressed desire by making use of this opportunity to kiss and caress lovely Barbara's skin, while she is engaged in her bath. The Gloom Man and Happy the Dope Fiend are worth a small sum to see. The Siamese twins will also be a source of much entertainment.

Troop Two is presenting an exhibit where one may throw wet towels at whomever he pleases. Through a unique invention of one of the scouts of Troop Two, it has been made possible to put anyone in the booth as the target. All this at a moderate price too.

Troop one is presenting a great surprise show. This is the most secret show of the circus outside of Troop Four's show.

Troop Four's show is so secret that they have not even advertised but it promises to be good.

After the circus the great Bar-B-cue will be held, and the Bar-B-cue is the ideal place for and empty stomach.

Remember, anything may happen, so, come to the CIRCUS.

Most of the details of today circus will remain a secret until the shows are officially opened. Only small scraps of information could be picked up around camp concerning the side shows. Barring scraps of information gleaned from a few Troop Leaders, the activities of the circus will be a surprise to all.

Troop Three is starring the "ALGONQUIN CONGRESS of BEAUTY" and featuring Gypsy Rose Hiller, who is the main attraction of the Flora Dora Six. The rhythmic antics of the group will be aided by music from Dappy Duetcher and his Dopes. At this abode of many laughs, one may also practise ax throwing. The horses at Belmont have nothing on our Wauwepex frogs who sprint at a slow trot. Someday the great Killer Klein might gain entrance to Madison Square Garden.

Troop Five presents "CARR' CATS COLLOSAL CARNIVAL". Margie Harp may be appealing, but the army still has Dorothy Lamour. That there is attraction and interest is an understatement, so don't miss this coin grabbing amusement.

Troop Six, as usual, will sponsor the "SIBERIAN ODDITY SHOW" continued in opposite column
