

SCOUTS OF NASSAU WILL REPEAT OATH DURING CELEBRATION

Special Services Arranged for Sunday Afternoon in Garden City

Thousands of Boy Scouts throughout Nassau County will repeat the oath of the organization in connection with the nineteenth anniversary of Boy Scout Week, which will be celebrated Feb. 8-14.

The chief event will be the annual special scout services at the Cathedral of the Incarnation, Garden City, Sunday afternoon. The four Rockville Centre troops will attend in a body under the leadership of John D. Clark, chairman of the district.

Troop leaders are urged to arrange special afternoon hikes Saturday, or if the weather permits, skating parties. A big delegation is expected over the week-end at Camp Wauwepex, the Scout camp at Wading River.

Troop 38, of St. Mark's M. E.

raise the flag at South Side High School Monday morning, as this day is devoted to the scout and his school.

Wednesday night at the high school auditorium, a motion picture program, directed by Charles H. Stoll, of the Stoll-McCracken Arctic expedition, will be shown, Thursday, Nassau Anniversary Day, the Nassau County Council will hold its annual dinner at the Rockville Country Club. Cameron Beck, personnel director of the New York Stock Exchange, will be the speaker.

