

Appendix K - Publications

Disney collectors have discovered that Disney books and magazines have become extremely sought after in recent years. Although the most valuable titles are those from the 1930's and 40's, many of the books based on the Studio's television works are also quite popular.

The following is a list of publications based upon the Disney television series. In some cases, the tie-in was limited to being an "authorized edition" of a different Disney product that was not otherwise related to television. For example, Little Golden Book D-62 (Bongo) was issued as an "Authorized Mickey Mouse Club Edition" of the story from Jiminy Cricket Presents Bongo, a theatrical release.

Information is provided wherever possible as to the original publishers catalog number. It should be noted that many books were issued without such a number appearing on the product itself. When catalog numbers are available the listings appear in numerical order, with the remaining titles in alphabetical order.
