

Appendix L - Awards

Over the years, Walt Disney and the Studio won a large number of awards for their work in television. The following list represents the major awards won, and notes, where applicable, the specific show named in the award.

1954

- American Cinema Editors - Best Editing, TV Show ("Operation Undersea")
- Fame Magazine Award - Most Unique New Program in Television ("Disneyland")
- Radio-TV Daily Poll - Best Children's Show of the Year ("Disneyland")
- Sylvania Award - Most Outstanding Television Series for Children ("Disneyland")
- Television Champion Award - Most Unique New Program ("Disneyland")

1955

- Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (Emmy) - Best Variety Series for 1954 ("Disneyland")
- Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (Emmy) - Best Individual Show ("Operation Undersea")
- Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (Emmy) - Best Television Film Editing ("Operation Undersea")
- Billboard Magazine - "Disneyland"
- Broadcast Music, Inc. (BMI) - Citation for "The Ballad of Davy Crockett"
- Christopher Award (Outstanding contributions)
- Henry W. Grady School of Journalism, University of Georgia, George Foster Peabody Television Award - Outstanding Program for Children and Youth in 1954 ("Disneyland")
- Hollywood Bowl Association - "King of the Child's Frontier"
- Kentucky, Commonwealth of - Governor's Commission for "Davy Crockett"
- Look TV Award - Best Children's Program ("Disneyland")
- Motion Picture Daily - Most Unique New Program ("Disneyland")
- Parent's Magazine Gold Medal - "Disneyland and other TV Programs and Films for Children in 1955"
- Pasadena City College - Certificate honoring "Disneyland" series
- Southern California Motion Picture Council - Certificate honoring "Davy Crockett"
- Sylvania Award - For "The Mickey Mouse Club"
- Television Champion Award - Best Children's Program ("Disneyland")
- TV-Radio Life Magazine, Distinguished Achievement Award - Outstanding New TV Program for 1954 ("Disneyland")

1956

- Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (Emmy) - Best Action or Adventure Series ("Davy Crockett")
- Academy of Television Arts and Sciences (Emmy) - Best Producer, Filmed Series (Walt Disney for "Disneyland")
- American Association of University Women - Certificate honoring "Disneyland" series
- American Guild of Variety Artists - Certificates honoring "I'm No Fool" series
- American Legion Auxiliary, Golden Mike Award - Best Telecasts for Youth ("Disneyland")
- Anaheim Halloween Festival - Trophy for "The Mouseketeers" stadium show
- Austin, City of - Plaque honoring "I'm No Fool with Fire"
- Automatic Music Industry of America - Best Record of 1955 ("Davy Crockett")
- Billboard Award - Outstanding Achievement in Television Filming ("Disneyland")
- Billboard, Fourth Annual TV Program and Talent Awards - Best Children's Program on Network TV ("The Mickey Mouse Club")
- Burbank, City of - Best Movie Song ("The Ballad of Davy Crockett")
- California Congress of Parents & Teachers - Certificate honoring "Disney's Magic Kingdom" radio series
- California Congress of Parents & Teachers - Certificate honoring "Disneyland" series
- California Congress of Parents & Teachers - Certificate honoring "The Mickey Mouse Club"
- Fame-Television Today Award - For "Disneyland" series
- General Federation of Women's Clubs - Citation honoring "The Mickey Mouse Club"
- Hollywood Foreign Press Association, Golden Globe Award - Best American Story Telling ("Disneyland")
- Institute for Education by Radio-Television, Ohio State University - Special Award in recognition of outstanding educational value and distinguished television production ("Disneyland")
- Little Golden Record Company - Gold record for 2,000,000th pressing of "The Ballad of Davy Crockett"
- Look TV Award - Best Children's Series ("Disneyland")